

American Association of Adjunct Education 2014 Call for Proposals

Conference Theme: “Excellence through Effective Teaching”

Date: November 1, 2014

Location: Lone Star Conference Center, 5000 Research Forest Dr., The Woodlands, Texas

The American Association of Adjunct Education (AAAE) will be hosting a conference in November 2014 and is currently accepting proposals for breakout sessions and roundtables. Proposals that relate to teaching and learning will be reviewed. Abstracts should not exceed (2) pages double spaced. The abstracts should include the key contact's name, address, institution/organization, e-mail address, and phone number. Please indicate whether your proposal is a breakout session or a roundtable.

Breakout Sessions— Lasting sixty minutes including a question and answer period, the breakout sessions will provide a grand opportunity for presenters and participants to interact and learn.

Roundtables / Lightning Rounds— These informal Q&A sessions are an opportunity to discuss teaching and learning. After 15 minutes participants will move to another roundtable to begin another discussion.

Adjunct of the Year Award

AAAE is accepting nominations for the 2014 Adjunct of the Year award for outstanding service to the college, university and / or community. Outstanding service may include but is not limited to teaching, mentoring, publishing, service projects, programs, etc. Nominations may be made by the individual's dean, department head or a colleague. Please include the nominee's contact information.

The deadline to submit a proposal and / or a nomination for adjunct of the year is:

Monday, September 1, 2014.

All presenters and nominees are required to register for the conference.
